About Extremis

Extremis is a renowned Belgian furniture design group with a collection of products that focus on togetherness and celebrating life outdoors.

Founded by Dirk Wynants in 1994, Extremis is on a mission to combine intelligent design based on Flemish common sense with a famous Burgundian lifestyle. With headquarters and manufacturing in Poperinge, Belgium, the company's design ethos is derived from a Shaker quote: "Don't make anything, unless it is both necessary and useful... and if it is, don't hesitate to make it beautiful." With that in mind, Extremis began making furniture suited for the outdoors and indoors in completely non-standard ways.

About Mattiazzi

Mattiazzi is an Italian furniture manufacturer known especially for skillfully made wooden chairs.

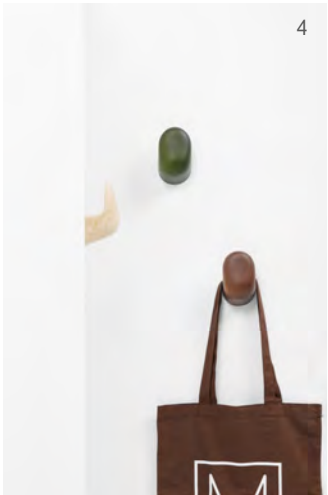

The story of Mattiazzi began in 1979 when brothers Nevio and Fabio Mattiazzi set up a workshop in the city of Udine in Northeastern Italy. Over the years, the company has grown into a prestigious brand based on beautiful design and high-quality products made to last for years and years.

The cornerstones of Mattiazzi's activities are the combination of craft and industry methods. All Mattiazzi furniture is made from sustainably sourced, certified wood, and their production processes are constantly being developed to be more efficient and environmentally friendly.

Mattiazzi uses the most sophisticated CNC machines available in the market to digitally mill all of their wood products, before the final assembly is done by hand. This allows for full assembly in the plant with no hardware needed at install.

About Carl Hansen & Son

In 1908, cabinetmaker Carl Hansen opened a small furniture workshop on the Danish island of Funen. Since then, the company has relied on two core ideas: an uncompromising commitment to the finest craftsmanship and alliances with exceptional designers who continually reinvent and refine the concept of modern design. Carl Hansen & Son's evolution has been deeply influenced by their long-term relationship with famous designer Hans J. Wegner.

About Moooi

Founded in 2001 by Marcel Wanders and Casper Vissers, and currently led by Marcel Wanders and Robin Bevers, Moooi is named after their native Dutch word for beautiful – the third ‘o’ in the brand name is symbolic of even more beauty and uniqueness. Moooi celebrates timeless objects of beauty which possess the uniqueness and character of antiques combined with the freshness of modern times. With carpets, lighting, furniture and accessories, Moooi creates interior environments decorated with an inspiring variety of patterns and colors to embrace any kind of space and make people of different ages, cultures and personalities fall in love with their environment.

About Blu Dot

Blu Dot was founded in 1997 by three designers, John Christakos, Maurice Blanks and Charlie Lazor. As they were furnishing their first homes, the things they liked they couldn't afford and the things they could afford they didn't like – and so, Blu Dot was born. Their work has won numerous design awards and has been exhibited in prominent museums such as the Centre Pompidou, Cooper Hewitt National Design Museum, The Walker Art Center and MoMA.

Steelcase and Blu Dot are partners in delivering modern lounge furniture to inspire unique personalization of informal spaces in the home and office.

About nanimarquina

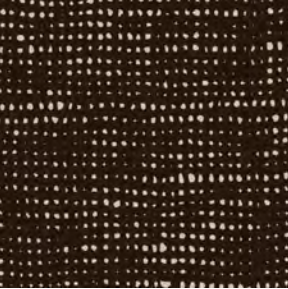

A second-generation family business in Barcelona, Spain, nanimarquina is internationally renowned for color, design and innovation in the world of handmade rugs. With a deep respect for tradition, nanimarquina makes rugs with ancient techniques by weavers in India, Pakistan and Nepal. They design long-lasting rugs that do not encourage the throwaway culture, but rather products that can be recycled at the end of their lifecycle.

About Tom Dixon

After dropping out of art school and spending the next two decades at the forefront of contemporary design, revered British innovator Tom Dixon established his namesake brand in 2002. Armed with the finest materials and a steadfast commitment to meticulous craftsmanship, the brand began by offering bold yet timeless furniture and lighting fixtures.

Tom Dixon extended production in 2012 to include a wide range of artfully devised and functional home accessories, including the brand's signature Tank glassware, which has emerged as an acclaimed staple, alongside pendant lights and wingback chairs.

Unwilling to rest on its laurels, Tom Dixon continues to release imaginative new collections year after year.

About m.a.d.

After spending more than 10 years developing and manufacturing furniture for others, long-time friends Matt and Dan both knew they could do better.

In 2010, they founded m.a.d. furniture design to do just that – create well designed, high quality, modern furniture at an accessible price point. All the products in the m.a.d. collection are original designs, manufactured without compromise to contract level quality standards. Home, work or play, m.a.d. furniture complements just about any modern residential or commercial space.

About Bend Goods

Founded in 2010 in Los Angeles, California, Bend is on a mission to create designs that are superbly crafted, delight you aesthetically, and shape your life.

Their philosophy has always been to design pieces that are equally as beautiful as they are functional. These attributes are in the forefront of their minds as they strive to make unexpected products that evolve with their customers. Their contract grade and BIFMA tested products are versatile enough to fit into any interior or exterior setting. From a residential backyard to a five-star restaurant, Bend pieces can blend seamlessly into the most modern and/or distinctly traditional of spaces.

About Stephen Kenn

Originally from Edmonton, Stephen moved to Los Angeles in 2004 to build the denim business he started as a 20 years old. Over the years his love of design – and a few dismantled pieces of old furniture – propelled him towards travel and home goods. He and his wife Beks Opperman operate their design studio from the heart of downtown Los Angeles. They create innovative pieces using unique materials and detail obsessed processes from a sofas built with military surplus canvas to an entire collection inspired by sailing and sail-cloth.

Stephen and Beks believe that good community is essential to a healthy design practice, and incorporate an open house policy with their showroom and studio as often as they can. They regularly open their studio doors to the public for coffee mornings and cocktail nights that facilitate good conversation and the making of new friends.

About Skram

The objects that surround us are a reflection of our priorities. Our priorities reflect our character. We reject disposability and believe that quality is more than a slogan.

Based in the Piedmont region of North Carolina, USA since 2001, Skram is a manufacturer of sustainable heirloom furnishings at-scale for design-driven residential, commercial, and hospitality applications. The company has earned an international following for an approach that emphasizes sustainable practices, natural materials, and extraordinary workmanship. All Skram products are made in their entirety in the Company's solar-powered facility.
